“UNDER THE BIG TOP” AT THE BUFFALO CHRISTIAN CENTER

Buffalo, NY- The carnival has come to town at the Buffalo Christian Center Summer Day Camp 08.

Scotts Hill Baptist Church of Willington, North Carolina has brought a team of 40 adults and teens on a Mission Trip to the Buffalo Christian Center. Jonathan Cockrell, a native of Buffalo, and brother of Pastor Breck Cockrell from the Chapel on Elmwood, has brought this mission team to help out with the Summer Day Camp 08, for children who have completed 1st through 6th grade. They are assisting with sports, recreation, arts and crafts, music, drama and worship.

It is said that “an idle mind is the devils workshop and the idle hands are the devils tools”. In the inner city communities this is far too often the case and is true most often in the summer when school is out. The BCC Summer Day Camp, which has been ongoing since June 29th, is not just to occupy children’s time but to help them grow socially, emotionally and educationally.

Bringing to close the Summer Day Camp 08, the Scotts Hill Baptist Church will be participating in “Under the Big Top” on Thursday, May 31st from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. with face painting, ring toss, tic tac toe, cake walk, balloon animals, fish pond, bounce house, and much more.

The Buffalo Christian Center has been serving the Church and the inner city for over 55 years. The BCC is a 5 level 66,000 square foot building located in downtown Buffalo, NY. Our building offers a Christian bookstore; swimming pool, game room, gymnasium, roller rink and a beautiful 600 seat auditorium.
